Tom Waite has been a professional all-breed trainer for 17 years. He has presented training seminars throughout the U.S. and Europe. Besides a trainer and speaker, he and his dogs have been featured in numerous outdoor magazines and newspaper articles. As a licensed judge in both the AKC and the AFTC, Tom not only evaluates his pupils, but is sought after to evaluate dogs in field trials and hunt tests. As a field trial/hunt test competitor and handler, Tom has taken numerous dogs to national field trail and Master Hunter levels.

At his training facility in Southeastern Wisconsin, Tom uses a one-on-one owner/dog interactive training philosophy, to ensure a successful working partnership between owner and dog. Besides running a first class training and boarding facility, Tom also breeds first class hunting and field trial dogs. The breeds featured at Dale Creek Gundogs are Labrador Retrievers, American Water Spaniels, English Setters and English Pointers.

The mission statement at Dale Creek Gundogs is this...Everyone deserves to own at least one well trained dog in their lifetime.
